

Georgia Southern Young Life Annual College Life Cookout

MEDIA ALERT

STATESBORO, Ga. – September 21, 2018

WHAT: Georgia Southern Young Life will be hosting their annual College Life cookout for college students interested in College Life or becoming a Young Life leader. Come hang out to meet current Young Life leaders and others interested in Young Life as we kick off the school year. Burgers and hotdogs from Sonic, chips, drinks, and corn hole will be provided at the cookout.

The laughter, the fun, the friends — does it all end after high school? “Of course not!” Young Life College or “College Life” is similar to traditional Young Life, but it is geared specifically towards college students.

WHO: Statesboro Young Life College of Georgia Southern University.

WHEN: Wednesday, Sept. 26, at 7:30 p.m.

WHERE: Georgia Southern RAC Pavilion
2687 Bunny Akins Blvd.
Statesboro, GA 30458

WHY: Statesboro Young Life offers a fun, accepting community to be a part of while exploring or deepening your faith and provides the opportunity to lead high school students. There are opportunities to be with friends, learn about God, be in small groups, and to simply hang out and have fun together. Volunteer leader positions entail reaching out to high schoolers in Statesboro. Statesboro Young Life is eager to lead and train college students as valuable members of their Young Life teams.
