Statesboro Young Life Moves to New House

STATESBORO, Ga., Sep. 7, 2018 - Statesboro Young Life moved from their downtown office to a house on S Zetterower Ave. last Friday. After Statesboro Young Life's area director resigned in December, the committee allocated extra money to rent a house.

Statesboro Young Life has been at their office on Main St. since 2008. "A committee member allowed us to use our old office, free of charge for almost 10 years," said J.J. Puccio, Statesboro Young Life Committee chairman. "Last year, they decided to put it on the market for rent because of the downtown revitalization."

Statesboro Young Life placed 15 leaders last March, almost doubling their size. According to Puccio, the house gives the organization more space for hosting "leadership meetings, bible studies, and other get-togethers." The house was previously used by Southbridge Community Church as an office space.

Statesboro Young Life is a multicultural organization, dramatically impacting the lives of high schoolers since 2008. Volunteer leaders meet kids where they're at, focusing on what matters to them — fun, adventure, and friendship. In doing so, we earn the privilege of talking to them about something we think matters most of all — the truth about God and His love for us.

Statesboro Young Life has 28 volunteer leaders and a committee comprised of parents, Young Life alumni, and civic leaders who provide a foundation of financial, administrative, and moral support for the Statesboro Young Life team.
